

The facts cannot be ignored. Six of the 9 million uninsured children are eligible for Medicaid or CHIP but are still not enrolled because of unnecessary state-imposed administrative barriers. Barriers that Congress can remove now. Real child health-care reform means affordable and easily accessible coverage of all medically necessary services for all children from head to toe, regardless of where they live. To do less just doesn't add up. www.childrensdefense.org

