

Will his voice even be heard in the upcoming health care debate?

The recent expansion of the Children's Health Insurance Program was a strong step forward. But, remember, 5 million children will still be uninsured, and millions more underinsured. Now is our chance for real reform. Together, we can make sure all children get the health coverage and care they deserve.

www.childrensdefense.org

Children's Defense Fund[®]