

A WORKSHOP ADDRESSING RIGHTS AND EMPOWERMENT

YAY! AWARE

October 15, 2011

1 - 4:30pm PART I:
FAITH AND COMMUNITY LEADER TEACH-IN

COME LEARN how charging 16-17 years olds as adults in the criminal justice system negatively impacts individual youth and our communities as a whole. Participate in a discussion on how to involve your congregations and constituents in the campaign to raise the age.

5 - 8pm PART II:
RAISE THE AGE, RAISE THE YOUTH
FILM TOUR LAUNCH EVENT

WATCH FILMS from around the country and learn about what it means for youth to be tried as adults in the criminal justice system, and how it directly affects youth and their families.

AFTER THE FILM SCREENING

- Participate in a discussion on how you can GET INVOLVED in the campaign to raise the age.
- Find out how you can become the next host for the film tour!

Location

Long Island University
(BROOKLYN Campus)
1 University Plaza
(btn Flatbush & Dekalb Ave)
Health & Science Building
Lecture Rooms 107 and 119

R Q R/Q to Dekalb
2 3 4 5 2/3/4/5 to Nevins
A C F A/C/F to Jay Street

Organized by

Children's Defense Fund-NY and the Institute for Juvenile Justice Reform & Alternatives, a project of the Center for Nuleadership. The event is made possible with generous support from the Campaign for Youth Justice, Public Welfare Foundation, Prospect Hill Foundation and Open Society Foundation.

For more information, contact:
IJJRA at 718-502-8854 or info@ijjra.org
CDF at 212-697-2323 dirons@cdfny.org

Children's Defense Fund
NEW YORK