

Version 1.2 – Updated 2/18/2020

- Updated question 1.F.2., “What pre-approved services eligible for Title IV-E reimbursement have already been released to the Clearinghouse,” to direct readers to the most up to date information possible.
- Added question 1.F.10., “Can programs or services be re-reviewed for the Clearinghouse,” to reflect updates to the Title IV-E Prevention Services Clearinghouse FAQ
- Updated Box 5, “Criteria and Procedures for Systematic Review of the Title IV-E Prevention Services Clearinghouse,” to include information on what program adaptations are permissible
- Added question 9.C.8., “Can Adoption Savings funds be used as the non-federal share of the Title IV-E Prevention Program,” to reflect updates to the Title IV-E Prevention Services Clearinghouse FAQ

Version 1.1 – Updated 1/27/2020

- Added information on Family First Transition Act to Introduction
- Updated “Title IV-E Prevention Program Requirements at a Glance” box to reflect changes to the well-supported practice requirement in the Family First Transition Act
- Added New Box: “Summary of the Family First Transition Act”
- Updated Question 1.H.3., “Can administrative dollars be used to evaluate and implement evidence-based services?” to reflect Question 8.6C.1 in Child Welfare Policy Manual
- Added question 1.H.5., “Can the cost of conducting an independent systematic review for the purposes of claiming transition payments be claimed as an administrative cost,” to reflect Question 8.6C.1 in Child Welfare Policy Manual
- Updated Implementation Chronology to reflect changes to the well-supported practice requirement timeline from the Family First Transition Act
- Updated all references to the Promoting Safe and Stable Families program to reflect the name change to the MaryLee Allen Promoting Safe and Stable Families Program in the Family First Transition Act