

Notice: there is a limit of three (3) job applications per person for this fellowship. Please review all openings prior to applying, and then apply for your top three.

Thank you for your interest in the 2023 NBA HBCU Fellowship!

The NBA Foundation HBCU Fellowship Program aims to provide career development opportunities in the business of basketball for undergraduate and graduate students from Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). Fellows are selected by NBA teams and the league office to work within a variety of departments, including ticket sales, corporate partnerships, legal, social responsibility, and marketing. The Fellowship Program is a paid 10-week summer internship and will run from June to August 2023.

The 2023 application is now open. We will accept applications until Monday, February 20, 2023.

How to Apply:

1. Initially, you will be directed to the Jobs at CDF page. To search specifically for HBCU Fellowship openings, click the search box for “Department.” Type in “NBA HBCU” to see departments with positions related to the fellowship program.
2. Select the desired department, then click the blue “Search” box.
3. Browse openings within the selected department.
4. Once you decide to apply for a position, click the blue “Apply Now” box at the bottom of the page.
5. If you do not already have an account with CDF, you can create one by clicking the “Create an Account” link provided on the page. If you do have a previously created account, sign in with your username and password.
6. Complete the application. Be on the lookout for your confirmation and later email correspondence regarding your application(s).

If you have questions about or need assistance with the application process, please contact hbcufellowship@childrensdefense.org.
