

Hall-Proctor Institute for Child Advocacy Ministry

July 13-16, 2026

Begin Again! Roots, Sacred Rhetoric & Revolutionary Mothering

Named in honor of Rev. Dr. Prathia Hall and Rev. Dr. Samuel DeWitt Proctor, the Hall-Proctor Institute is a sacred gathering where faith leaders and child advocates come together to be renewed, inspired, and equipped for the work of justice. Held annually on the hallowed grounds of CDF Haley Farm in Clinton, TN, we share stories of pain and passion, hope and hurt. We sing and pray. We strategize and struggle. We organize and advocate. And through it all, we find strength to continue the sacred work of ensuring justice and joy for all young people.

Over our 50-year history, our work has expanded beyond just serving children to include young people as they mature to adulthood. We are training the next generation of leaders who will guide us towards a brighter future where children and youth have every opportunity to thrive. As we continue the work of listening to America's youngest generations, we are building community so young people grow up with dignity, hope, and joy. We hope you will join us!
